

Three Short Poems of Emily Bronte

for Kristen English

1. Lonely at her window

Emily Bronte

Ronald A. Beckett

dur-0:45

$\text{♩} = 72$

Lone - ly at her win - dow
oboe solo

4

sit - ting, While the eve - ning stole a - way;

7

Fit - ful winds, fore - bod - ing, flit - ting

9

Through a sky of cloud - y grey. rall.

Boca Raton, 11 September, 2014

2. 'Twas one of those dark and cloudy days

dur-1:05

Emily Bronte

Ronald A. Beckett

The musical score is written for piano and clarinet in 2/4 time, with a tempo of quarter note = 100. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The piano part begins with a leggiero marking and a dynamic of p. The clarinet part enters in the second measure with a dynamic of mf. The lyrics are: 'Twas one of those dark, cloud - y days That some - times come in sum - mer's blaze, When heav - ven drops not, When

3. There are two trees

dur-1:12

Emily Bronte

Ronald A. Beckett

mf p
very slow ♩ = 44
There are two trees in a lone - ly field;

4
They breathe a spell to me; A drear - y thought their

7
dark boughs yield, All wav - ing sol - emn -

10
ly. slowing